ANSWERS

A1. All members (except junior members) of Lake View Credit Union in good standing are eligible to vote. Good standing is defined in the rules as a member who:

- (a) has purchased, paid for and holds the number of Class "A" Membership Equity Shares required by the Rules;
- (b) is not delinquent in any obligation to the credit union

A2. You must have been a member for at least 120 days prior to the election

A3. Nineteen (19) years or older. No junior members are able to vote.

A4. Unincorporated organizations or societies and/or members under 19 years old.

A5. Each member gets ONE vote. One member, One vote

A6. Voting is based on membership. One member, one vote, regardless of how many accounts you have.

A7. Voting eligibility is based on Equity Share accounts – every member has their own individual equity share account.

Q8. Can my business vote?

A8. Incorporated or limited companies are eligible to vote by proxy of a non-member which preserves the one member, one vote rule.

Voting by proxy means that you appoint someone you trust to vote on your behalf.

Proxy must be received ten (10) days prior to the election start in order for the business to cast a vote. If you receive questions about this from a member, please contact Selina Lajeunesse

Q9. How do I cast my vote?

A9. Members cast their vote electronically via our website and MemberDirect. Those that do not have electronic means can visit one of our branches.
